

The Mission Statement of the Oshkosh Public Library is to provide its community with library materials and services which inform, educate, enrich, and entertain. Free open and equal access to general information will be met for all segments of the population to make a positive difference.